Great Religious Production That Opens in Garden on December 15 Designed to Cure the Spirit of Unrest

When the curtain rises on the first rformance of "The Wayfarer" at adison Square Garden on December 15, the church people of New York will bresent probably the largest production over offered to an audience in this

Anspired by the success of "The Wygfarer" when it turned away tens of thousands of persons at the Methodist centenary celebration in Columbus, Ohio, last summer, the leaders of the interchurch World Movement, representations of the control of the senting virtually all Protestant de-cominations, decided to reproduce the bageant in New York and other large

MUSIC?

To the fortunate possessor, a Sterling Piano becomes a thing of life.

It is so much a part of the home and the life of the home that you feel the natural pride of possession and honor its name as you should

You are justly proud of the place it holds among musical instruments—proud of its pure and satisfying music-proud of the enjoyment it gives your friends.

For these reasons alone it is quite natural that and Playerpianos are the popular favorites to the Holiday buyer who cherishes the imperishable sentiments of Christmas.

The pride, the love and the enjoyment of possession are the practical results of the genuine merit which these instruments possess.

There isn't a safer Piano to buy. Its price is always the same to everyone-no one can buy a cent cheaper than you can.

And any honest person can buy a Sterling on terms most liberal and helpful.
